

Play A Thon Environment Setup

Welcome to Play-a-Thon! Follow the comprehensive guide below to set up your development environment for a seamless experience.

Registration

Get started by clicking on the Register Now link at the top of the webpage. Fill in the required details to create your Play-a-Thon account. Ensure you provide accurate information for a smooth registration process.

Email Verification

After successfully registering, check your registered email inbox. You'll receive a verification email. Click on the verification link to confirm your account and gain access to Play-a-Thon's features.

Download Play-a-Thon Plugin

To enhance your development environment, download the Play-a-Thon plugin. You can do this by clicking on the verification link sent to your email. Alternatively, visit to download the plugin directly.

Plugin Setup Guidelines

Now that you have the Play-a-Thon plugin, let's integrate it into your preferred development environments:

- VS Code: Follow the detailed setup guidelines at VS Code plugin setup .

Folder Creation and Terminal Setup

Prepare your workspace by creating a folder of your choice at your preferred location. Open a command prompt or terminal within this folder to streamline your development workflow.

Initialize Play-a-Thon Project

Execute the following commands in the terminal to initialize your Play-a-Thon project:

Follow the prompts to provide essential details such as your preferred technology, email address, name, and any other required information. This ensures your project is tailored to your specifications.

Project Setup Complete

Congratulations! Your Play-a-Thon project setup is complete. You are now equipped to dive into the exciting world of Play-a-Thon. Start building, collaborating, and showcasing your skills.

Feel free to explore additional Play-a-Thon features and documentation to maximize your development experience.